

Tate Mausoleum, Putney Vale

A white marble Ionic temple, distyle in antis. The elaborately detailed bronze door bears a coat of arms and the Tate motto "THINCKE AND THANCKE". The large window at the back is boarded up.

Putney Vale Cemetery
Kingston Road
Putney
SW15 3DZ

Scan for Google Maps Link

Architects

Not known

Year Built

1910

Style

--

Listing

Grade II (England and Wales)

Condition

Good/Fair (2002)

History

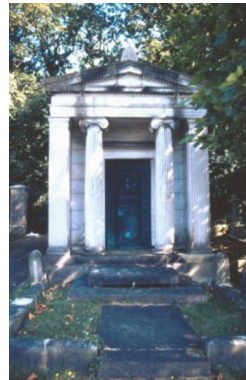

This mausoleum was built for Edwin Tate (d.1928).

Sources

J S Curl: The Victorian Celebration of Death (2000) 166.

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 51.4382602767, -0.238954606