

Earl of Kellie Mausoleum

Three-bay, single storey mausoleum built on a rectangular ground plan comprising a stoned slabbed vaulted chamber flanked by columbaria. Ashlar masonry to principal elevation having advanced central bay with arched entrance and over pediment dated 1821. Inscription reads “ Erected by Thomas IX Earl of Kellie and consecrated by the Right Reverend David Low LLD Bishop of Ross and Argyle the 29th July 1821”.

Cambo House
Kingsbarns
St.Andrews
Fife
KY16 8QD
Scotland

Architects

Year Built

Style

1821

--

Listing

Grade B (Scotland)

Condition

History

Built by Thomas IX Earl of Kellie of Cambo House.

Sources

Scott Cooper (1999). A hand-list of Mausolea set within Scotland's Designed Landscapes. Edinburgh: 1.

1st edition O.S map no XIII, 1855. O.S map 1973. Gilford, p.119.

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 56.29421455977827, -2.642238855115721