

Cambridge Mausoleum

Pink and grey granite mausoleum with arched doorway on south face flanked by plinths, set below cavetto cornice, battered side walls with roll mouldings to corners, stepped roof with curved finial and marble posts with chain to border of plot.

Kensal Green Cemetery
Harrow Road
London
W10 4RA
England

Scan for Google Maps Link

Architects

The mausoleum itself is not signed, but one of the posts bears the name "Monumental Co. Opposite Entrance".

Year Built

1890

Style

--

Listing

Grade II (England and Wales)

Condition

Good.

History

George, Duke of Cambridge (1819 - 1904), grandson of King George III, Field Marshal and Commander-in-Chief of the British Army is interred here with his morganatic wife, Sarah (Louisa) Fairbrother (1815 - 1890). Their three sons, Col. George William Adolphus Fitzgeorge d. 1907, Rear Admiral Sir Adolphus A Fitzgeorge d. 1922, and Col. Sir Augustus Charles Frederick Fitzgeorge d.1933 also rest in the mausoleum as do two children born before their marriage: Charles Manners Sutton Fairbrother d.1901 and Louisa Catherine Hamilton d. 1919.

Sources

FOKGC: Paths of Glory pp23 and 41.

Online Links

Friends of Kensal Green Cemetery

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 51.527969, -0.217483