

Fraser Mausoleum

Freestanding mausoleum on a circular ground plan having an ashlar granite drum with base plinth and entablature with frieze inscribed with the words ELIZABETH FRASER OF CASTLE FARSER MDCCC VIII. Granite dome with oculus. Square-headed doorway with lugged architrave having heraldic crest over door draped in festooned swags. Double-leaf timber door behind wrought-iron screen gate.

Dressed granite walls to interior with recumbent high cross on rock-faced plinth to centre and polished granite wall-mounted inscription plaque.

Cluny Old Kirkyard
Cluny
Inverurie
Aberdeenshire
AB51 7RS
Scotland

Architects

James Byers

Year Built

1808

Style

Neo-Classical

Listing

Grade A (Scotland)

Condition

Poor - Efforts to raise funds for necessary repair and conservation works are being spearheaded by the 'Friends of Miss Elyza Fraser's Mausoleum'.

History

Built to house the remains of Miss Elyza Fraser of Castle Fraser.

Sources

Anon. (2017). Elyza Fraser Mausoleum. Available:

<http://nespt.org/portfolio/elyza-fraser-mausoleum/>. Last accessed 17th March 2017.

Anon. (2013). Cluny cemetery with mortsafes and magnificent mausoleum. Available:

<https://lenathehyena.wordpress.com/2013/05/14/cluny-cemetery-with-mortsafes-and-magnificent-mausoleum/>. Last accessed 17th March 2017.

Photos

Location

SatNav Co-ordinates: 57.20280688003137, -2.523299010395767